

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

We begin this solemn and penitential season of Lent — truly a time to devote to prayer and repentance. How will you utilize and make the most of this season? This brochure contains a multitude of possibilities!

The theme of our Lenten Lecture Series is “Food for the Soul: The Year of the Priest.” There is certainly a varied offering of delicacies in this series to satisfy your spiritual hunger, presented by a very fine panel of my brother priests and this year, even a bishop! Make an effort to hear one of the excellent presenters.

Time spent before the Blessed Sacrament, meditating on the Stations of the Cross, or singing the Lenten psalmody can help you fill your heart and mind with the love and compassion of God. God always satisfies the hungry heart. Come together with our parish family to be reconciled with our Lord and with each other.

God’s peace,
Father Trader
